HSH Nordbank gains Ingmar Loges as Head of the new Shipping Clients International unit

Hamburg/Kiel, 16 December 2011 - HSH Nordbank is strengthening its Shipping segment. Ingmar Loges will head the new Shipping Clients International unit.

For many years Ingmar Loges has been active in senior positions within the international ship finance business, currently as Head of Global Shipping at UniCredit. From 1992 to 1996, Ingmar Loges had already worked in the international shipping business of Hamburgische Landesbank.

"Ingmar Loges will strengthen HSH Nordbank with his wealth of experience; I am looking forward to successful collaboration," said Torsten Temp, Management Board member responsible for Corporate and Private Clients at HSH Nordbank.

Loges will take up his new post no later than 1 July and will work closely with Christian Nieswandt, who was promoted to Head of Domestic Shipping Clients in October.
